PRES. LEMOS WELCOMES NEW STUDENTS

"To all new students and old, we are all pleased to have you here with us," welcomed Mr. John B. Lemos, President of Salinas Junior College, in his first Riordan as Milly, the family servage of the new school year. Mr. Lemos stated that with the reased enrollment, new inconeniences presented themselves, and that many of the classes were still overcrowded. In closing, he said, "It will be another week before we can iron out all of the inconveniences, but we will do tance that some members of the our best toward overcoming Carmen Mercante uses her past stage experience to portray, with great skill, Elizabeth Barrett. who is betrothed to Robert Browning. This role has been played by both Katherine Cornell and Helen Hayes, two of the greatest actresses of the present day stage.

The rich, handsome, young poet is played by Charles Link, veteran of many high school and college productions.

Holt Wood, a cast member of the First Theater of Monterey. has the role of the dominating Edward Moulton Barrett, father and physician to Elizabeth. Peggv Anne Taylor assumes the role of the light-hearted Henrietta, beloved sister of Elizabeth, and Jacquie Anderson has been cast to portray the part of the younger daughter, Arabel.

The part of George Barrett, the eldest son of Edward Barrett, is played by William Kaas and the youngest son of the Barrett family, Octavious, who is similar in many ways to his mother, is played by Jack Shapiro. Pat Smythe will be cast as the family uncle and wealthy patron of the arts, John Kenyon.

Supporting roles will be carried by Bob Bushta, as Captain Surtees Cook - the ridiculous military man who is madly in love with Henrietta; Mary Lou ant; Jean Emery, a personal servant to Elizabeth; and Minnie Belle Walker as Miss Mitford, a contemppaory author.

Evening rehearsals of a three hour duration will start on the first of October and take place only once a week, due to the dis cast have to travel to rehearse

Jean Emery, of Salinas, was elected secretary of the student association over Mary Lou Riordan of Monterey. Jean is a graduate of Salinas High School where she was active in athletics and student government. Peggy Anne Taylor, of Salinas, entering her last semester at Jaysee where she has been active in sports, gov ernment, dramatics, and journaism, stepped into the office of Commissioner of Women's Athletics, following her defeat of Ruthie Alarid, Salinas.

Marge Diaz, Monterey, defeated her opponent, Oscar Burke of King City, for the office of Freshman Commissioner. Marge is entering her second semester at Junior College, where she has been extremely active in social activities. Dave Gerry, Salinas, was elected over his two opponents, Pattie Weatherbie and Beverly Staton, both of Salinas. Dave

DATES CHANGED

Thanksgiving holidays, originally scheduled for November 18-22, have been changed to November 25-29, Mr. R. D. Case, superintendent of Salinas schools, announces. In structors will attend institute during the first two days of the vacation.

Frosh To Be Welcomed In Men's Gymnasium

All Jaysee students and faculty members are invited to gather at the Men's Gym this evening and take part in the first social event of the new school year. The Freshman Reception, held annually and sponsored by the Social Activities Committee, will feature dancing, entertainment, and refreshments - beginning at nines o'clock and continuing through twelve o'clock.

Walt Trotter, recently elected Social Activities Commissioner. spoke enthusiastically of the entertainment being planned and of the arrangements being made for decorations and refreshments.

He stated that such familiar names as Peavy's Tumblers. Emmett Wood's Players, Marvin Davis' Bus "16" Quartette, and Ruth McBride's vocal selections will be featured on the half hour program of entertainment. Tony Mercante will be "MC" and conduct the program in his own inimitable way.

An orchestra has been procured, but when questioned upon the nature of its size and style. Walt would only say that it was one of the "James" (Harry James, that is) boys.

Pattie Weatherbie is making arrangements for flavorsome refreshments, and Ardoth Terrill will direct members of the Social Activities Committee in creating artistic decorations for the gym.

September 20 Deadline For Class Sign-Ins

In response to many inquiries. the administration office has announced that the deadline for signing into a class is September 20. This time limit has been changed from four weeks to and language classes. three, because of the large increase in student body enrollment.

A student dropping a class after six weeks following registration day will receive an "F" in that subject unless his work has been entirely satisfactory, and the reason for dropping is justifiable. This deadline is October 11.

All students who wish to drop or sign into a class must have an official slip signed by the teacher of the course he wishes to drop. This slip must then be signed by the instructor of the new class by the dean.

Enrollment Four Times

in grand style this year by increasing its enrollment four times over last year's sign-up. A grand total of 822 students registered for the fall semester of the 1946-47 school year. Backed by the return from the service of some 381 veterans, the school has once again returned to its pre-war status as one of the outstanding J.C.'s in Northern California.

Although only two days were previously set aside for registration, the unusually large enrollment forced the administration to extend the registration into a third day. Extra long waiting lines highlighted the sign-up, with more than a few students spending two days going through the tedious enrollment routine.

As an unprecedented interest was shown in foreign languages Mr. Emil Ramos was signed by school officials to instruct some of the newly-formed Spanish classes

A good many students were compelled to rearrange their programs, or drop some subjects outright, due mainly to congestion in English, science, mathematics,

While some classes are already jammed to capacity, registration for entrance to the college will close in two weeks.

There are 114 women registered in the Freshman class as compared to 65 in the sophomore category. Twenty-two women are registered as special students. The freshman men take the lead in numerical enrollment with 507, while the Sophomore Class boasts 74. Nineteen men are special students

There are 621 in the Freshman being taken up, and then signed Class, 139 in the Sophomore Class and 40 specials.

Thinking Out Loud

By PEGGY ANNE TAYLOR

This first issue of the new Panther Sentinel is the staff "hello" and first-hand preview of the 1946-47 Junior College paper.

Having as their ultimate goal the desire to edit a weekly pa per that will be recognized by all students as the best paper ever published by a junior college staff, the Panther Sentinel personnel give you this issue as a material example of what's to come.

Several mentionable changes have been made in the college weekly since the final paper was issued last May. To the readers, the most noticeable of these is the decided increase in size from 8x10 inches to 101/2x141/2 inches. To the editor, the most welcome and noticeable change is the increase in the working crew. This year there are nine reporters and three editors to assume the responsibility carried by four reporters and two editors last year.

oped to give the readers a preview of latest fashions, details of weddings and coming marriages, and an over-all picture of school and student social activity. Four men and an editor are now working together to write the complete story of the sports sphere of Jaysee. All pages contain articles, both informative and entertaining, of school, club, and student activity.

The most important factor for reaching the before-mentioned that course. goal, however, has not yet been mentioned. This factor is the need for student co-operation with the Sentinel staff. This cooperation plus all of the previously listed attributes are the reasons which make the Panther Sentinel staff feel that they can edit an outstanding weekly pa-

Deans Are Changed

Mr. Henry Cassady, formerly dean of the occupational division, is lower division dean this year. Mr. Cassady takes the place of Dr. Eldon Gardner, now at the University of Utah.

'C' AVERAGE REQUIRED

Grading system this year will be the A-B-C-D-F five-point system. An "A" is exceptional; "B," very good; "C," average college grade; "D," the lowest passing grade; and "F," a failure. Stu-dents with an "F" in any course may remove it only by repeating the course.

Grade points are assigned to each unit of work in this manner: One unit of "A" constitutes three grade points; one unit of "B," two grade points; one unit of "C," one grade point; and one unit of "D" or "F" allows no grade points. The total number of grade points should equal the total number of units taken.

Students are required to main tain a 'C" average. If during one semester a student falls below this average, he is placed on probation. At the end of the next semester if he is still below a 'C" he will be disqualified from school for at least a semester.

Regular attendance in classes is very important for maintenance of good grades. Students absent for any reason whatsoever, who do not make up the work missed, are bound to have A society page has been devel- this absence reflect on their grades.

J.C. BAND

After an absence of several years, the Salinas Junior College marching band has returned to an active status and will play at all local football games, Mr. Lorell McCann announces.

At present, there are only 25 members in the band and there is an urgent need for members to fill in the reed section. There are also openings for some trombone, bass, and alto players. If the needed members can be secured, Mr. McCann hopes to accompany the team on some out-of-town games. The band meets from twelve o'clock to one o'clock daily and will welcome any new-

Cafeteria workers are now well organized. though perhaps not unionized, with a healthy supply of subs just in case.

New Class Open For Photographers

A new class has been added to the Salinas Junior College program for photography enthusiasts. The class will be held from two o'clock to four o'clock on Tuesdays and Thursdays, under the instruction of Mr. William McCallum. The class will be limited to five members and is open only to those students who secure permission from Mr. McCal-

The class will have charge of taking all pictures for The Sentinel, La Reata, and for school publicity. No personal photography will be allowed during class time.

Students interested can contact either Mr. McCallum or Mr. Dufour. The course offers two units credit.

Regulations For Smoking, Parking Are Outlined

Regulations regarding smoking and automobiles were brought to the attention of the students at the first student body meeting held Friday, September 6. There is to be no smoking in the building, on the steps, or on the two center lawns, President J. B. Le-

All automobiles should be parked on the north side of the building in the parking lot. If the parking lot is full, drivers should use the space by the gym.

CAMPUS CLOTHES

By PATTIE WEATHERBIE

Warm weather gives the coeds a chance to wear those adorably fresh cottons they've enjoyed this summer, and gives the old campus a fashionably summery look for the opening weeks of school. The men, too, have smart new additions to their school wardrobes in time with the summer

A gay dress for a gay girl is Roberta Merrill's chartreuse border print cotton. The border print consists of blue and red line drawings of music notes and floating bubbles.

Scarce as they are, two attractive T-shirts were worn last week by Joe Bragdon and Ernie Currier. Joe's shirt has wide light yellow, green, and white stripes, while Ernie's shirt looks spic 'n span with a white horizontal pin stripe of dark blue. Very complimentary to his blond hair.

Speaking of stripes, we must mention Nadine Conger's blue and white cotton. The sleeves are brief and the neckline is the interesting keyhole type. For accent, the shoulders and pouch pockets of the dress are covered with intricate white embroidery. Very cute on Nadine.

White shoes have added freshness to the campus footwear, such as those white leather wedgies worn by Edith Beck. Also white are the gaberdine ballarinas worn on Ruthie Alarid's active feeta nice contrast with her tan legs. A deviation from ballarinas are Bertha Black's white leather ballarina-toed wedgies with the heel out. A lucky purchase found in LA.

Shoes bring us around to Marvin Davis, who again stalks the campus, but now he does so in a pair of genuine huaraches that squeak of our neighboring country to the south.

CAST CHOSEN ...

The regular practices will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from twelve-thirty to one o'clock, and on Tuesday and Thursdays from three o'clock to four o'clock.

Enthusiasm is high as Miss Fraser readies her pupils for the performance, and all in all, it looks like "The Barretts" will be a marked success.

SURPRISE!

On Thursday, September 12, Reno, Nevada, was the scene of the elopement-marriage of two Salinas Junior College students, Patricia Glanville and Charles Patterson. The two left Salinas Thursday morning and came back the same day to spend a three-day honey moon in Santa Cruz. The Pattersons will go up to U.C. as soon as housing is available.

Many Engagements

Smith-Trotter

With the passing of chocolates at the August 20 meeting of Gamma Nu Sorority, Miss Janice Smith announced her engagement to Mr. Walter H. Trotter, Jr. Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Smith of Oakland, California, and is a graduate of Salinas Union High School and Salinas Junior College. She is a member of Gamma Nu Sorority.

Walter is the son of Mr. W. H. Trotter, Sr., of Oakland, and Mrs. T. Bradley of Monterey. He is graduate of Monterey High School, and in 1941 left his studies at Salinas Junior College to enter the A.A.F. Following four years in the service, two of which were spent in the European theater, he returned to Salinas Jaysee to resume his studies.

The couple have not set the wedding date, but according to both, it will be "in the very near future."

Volk-Spiegl

At a formal tea given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Volk, Miss Betsy Volk, prominent Jaysee student, announced her engagement to Mr. Philip Spiegl, son of the Ellis Spiegls of Salinas.

The announcement, which was made again a few days later to her Gamma Nu sisters by the passing of a box of chocolates, came as no surprise to the couple's many friends, as the marriage will culminate a romance which had its beginning in the early high school days of the pair. Both Betsy and Phil are graduates of Salinas Union High School - Phil with the class of 1944, and Betsy with the class of 1945.

Since his release from the army air forces, Phil has been resuming his college career at the University of California at Davis. Betsy plans on completing her J.C. course and graduating this vear.

Marriage plans are indefinite.

Marble-Thurlby

A September party that started out innocently as "Dutch Whist at Peggy's" turned out to be the announcement of Miss Peggy Marble's engagement to Mr. Grice Thurlby, Jr., son of the senior Grice Thurlbys of Salinas.

Peggy, who is the daughter of Mr and Mrs LaRain Marble of Salinas, is attending the University of Utah following a year at Salinas Jaysee. Her fiance attended the local schools before entering the armed forces. He is now an apprentice mortician in San Luis Obispo following his graduation from the school of

Although the marriage plans of the pair are indefinite, the wedding is expected to take place early in 1947.

FOOTBALL SEAS

Practice Tilt with Ord Opens Season Tomorrow

Playing its first full conference schedule since 1941, the Salinas Junior College Panthers will begin their climb to regain their pre-war football status Saturday at 2:00 p.m., when they come up against the Fort Ord Soldiers at Fort Ord in a practice tilt. The public is invited, and there will be no admission charge.

Coach Ed Adams, who headed the J.C. physical education department before entering the service in 1942, has returned, and will once again head the Panther coaching staff. He is assisted by Coach Dominic Campolo who has taken over the backfield coaching duties

The original squad of 68 candidates has been cut down to 36, and although a tentative line-up for the season's opener against Fort Ord has been released; Coach Adams has made it plain that all positions are still wide open, and any man showing the ability can step into the starting line-up.

One of the standouts in the first practice scrimmage last Friday was Bill Bardin, a guard from Salinas. Bardin jumped from the scrubs after making several smashing stops while playing against the first-stringers. Bardin is now battling with Bob Pia and Hal Hunter, also of Salinas, to see who will get the nod at the guard spots.

Chet Garnero, a big rugged center from Pacific Grove, was impressive in this workout as he served notice that the center of the J.C. line will be a tough spot to crack this season. Wellington Smith, fleet halfback from Monterey, has been named in the Panther starting line-up. Mainstay of last year's squad, Smith rambled through the second and the Metropolitan Conference. Adthird strings for ample yardage on several occasions.

Don Burke, 240-pounds fullback from Oakland, has been nominated for the fullback spot. Burke, who stands 6 feet 1 inch, moves with amazing speed in spite of the weight he carries.

The tentative line-up released by Coach Adams has a line averaging close to 200 pounds, with a group of fast rugged backs that will tip the scales at close to a 185-pound average.

The line-up for Saturday's game:

John Eastman	LÆ
Ralph Serrano	LT
Hal Hunter	LG
Chet Garnero	C
Bob Pia	RG
Gene Jensen	RT
Bob Williams	RE
Wellington Smith	RH
Clarence Twitchell	LH
Don Burke	F

While circulating 'round and about uptown the other day, we chanced to overhear some of the uptown financiers shedding verbal tears over the 40-cent increase in admission prices for the junior college football games this season. Seems as if the uptown money men blew 60 cents a couple of times last year, and feel they didn't get their money's worth.

Granted, and true, maybe the brand of ball played by the Panthers last season was away below par, but let us remind our citizens that the brand of ball to be played by the Northern California Junior College Conference this year is going to be far above the high pre-war standards set by the N.C.J.C.C. Win, lose, or draw, Salinas J.C. will be playing big-time ball that will be well worth the new admission price.

One of Coach Ed Adams' first acts as head of the physical education of Esjaysee was to cancel the scheduled football game with the Compton College Tartars of ams had occasion to view several of the Compton contests last season, and evidently wasn't pleased with the prospects that a game with the Tartars would present.

It has long been an open secret that the eligibility rulings in the Southern California Metropolitan Conference are much more lax than in the Northern California Junior College Conference, and Coach Adams feels that playing against a school that operates their athletic program under such lax eligibility rulings would not be fair to the team or the student body of Salinas Junior College.

BULLETIN

There will be a meeting of the Home Economics Club today at 3:00 p.m. in Room 35. Officers will be elected, and refreshments will be served. All women in the Home Economics department are welcome to attend.

Above, Peggy Anne Taylor, the newly-elected Commissioner of Women's Athletics. Miss Taylor, a well-known coed on the campus, takes an active part in all women's sports.

Below, Finis Jeffers, newlyelected Commissioner of Men's Athletics, popular member of the Jaysee student body. Commissioner Jeffers was a member of last year's basketball and baseball teams.

Salinas Squad Has Large Number Of JC SCHEDULES

Although it is still early in the eason, an interview with Coach Ed Adams reveals that Salinas Junior College has good possibilities for a football team of distinction this year.

There has been an abundance, however, of good and reputable gridders turn out. This large turn-out, about 68 men in all, has forced Coach Adams to cut the team down to a number of men he can justly work with. The squad now consists of 36.

Such veterans of the pigskin game as Russ Bohlke, Bill Bardin, Dean Dillingham, Roy Williams, and Bob Williams, are expected to make a showing for the Panthers of Salinas.

Four new buses are expected to arrive in October, and there are possibilities of having rooters' buses to the games.

COACHES ADAMS AND CAMPOLO HEAD JC PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Adams

This year, Salinas Junior College is returning to a full pre-war football schedule under the able Adams. Practice got under way out Thursday, September 5. Coach Adams announced the first game to be a practice tilt with Fort Ord Soldiers there tomorrow. The schedule ends with Mesa Junior College, Colorado, in coaching in Southern California. the local Lettuce Bowl, November 22.

Coach Ed Adams came to Salinas Junior College in 1937 to take over the duties of physical education instructor and athletics director. In the 1939-40 football season, Coach Adams produced a Northern California Junior College championship team. Some of the players on that team are playing again this year.

In the spring of 1942, Coach Adams answered the call to serve with the army air force. When Adams left the college the sports program was handed over to G. Darwin Peavy who capably handled the job up until now.

This year, Adams will be assisted by Dominic Campolo of Arizona State College. Coach Campolo has taken over the responsibility of forming the Panther backfield

Campolo

Dominic J. Campolo has taken over the duties of assistant coach at Salinas Junior College. Before supervision of Head Coach Ed joining the college physical education department, Coach Camwith close to 80 gridders turning polo was a member of an Arizona high school coaching staff. Two of his three years in the service were spent coaching army teams. Campolo has been refereeing and For the past two years, Coach

> He is a graduate of Arizona State College. Coach Campolo quarterbacked the Arizona State Bulldogs of the Border Conference for three years. Two of these years, Coach Campolo and his Bulldogs invaded the El Paso Sunbowl, once in 1940 to tie Catholic University, and again in 1941 to be defeated by the Western Reserve eleven.

Coach Campolo has taken over the job of coaching the Panther backfield. The newest member of the coaching staff has demonstrated that he is well qualified to hold his present position, and has won the respect of his charges.

Coach Campolo will take over the Panther baseball team this spring. He has played a great deal of baseball, and just recently turned down an offer to play professional hall.

Veteran Gridders TEN CONTESTS. FIVE AT HOME

The Salinas Junior College Panthers are busily preparing for their strenuous 10-game grid schedule which gets underway Saturday, September 21, when the Panthers journey to Fort Ord for an afternoon tussle with the soldier eleven.

A record turn-out of over 70 candidates greeted coaches Ed Adams and Dominic Campolo at the opening practice session. The group has now been cut to the regular 36-man squad. Coach Adams is handling the linemen, while Coach Campolo is rounding the backfield into shape.

Don Hart, the Texas speed merchant, who alternates between halfback and quarterback, has been looking very good in scrimmage, as have both Wally Smith and Clarence Twitchell at the halfback slots. The outstanding linemen to date have been Bob Williams at end, Ralph Serrano at tackle, Chet Garnero at center, and both Hal Hunter and Bill Bardin at guards.

Finis Jeffers, Salinas, became Commissioner of Men's Athletics; Walt Trotter, Monterey, will take over the duties of Commissioner of Social Activities, and Jean Stanbery, Salinas, steps into the office of Commissioner of Publications. These three newly-elected commissioners were unopposed in the election. The office of treasurer, appointive, was turned over to Joaquin Market of Monterey.

Tuesday, a short meeting was held for the new commissioners in order that they may orient themselves to the duties of the commission. Business included in the meeting was that of selecting Peggy Taylor to represent the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and deciding to place a bound volume of the minutes of the commission meetings in the library for the use of all students.
